

We won't be at Shakey...

Written by Frosty

Tuesday, 28 April 2009 21:22 - or any other S/E meeting this year. Ive had enough of the bs and politics that have taken over.

I'm afraid that the banning of setting records by a car on a class legal tyre is a blatant attempt to stop one person setting them.It's absurd that it's been kept so quiet that even Eurodragster didn't know anything about it. To the general public it seems a pretty sorry mess.To me it's the final straw.

Good luck to anyone racing in the class this year,specifically to Jeff Meads.To the 3 amigos,you deserve each other.I want my money back,it's NOT good value at all.....